SEASON 1 EPISODE 13: SUSIE'S BABY SHOWER DAY – A DAY TO SHARE LOVE AND JOY

On January 20th, it was Susie's baby shower day, and she had been meticulously preparing for it over the past few days, following the guidance of Lawyer Eggshell. Early in the morning, she called Lawyer Danke and informed her that she was ready to start implementing her plan, even though it might not be 100% perfect.

The baby shower was scheduled for 4 o'clock in the afternoon, and Susie had invited Eggshell Lawyers to join the celebration. Grandma Lucy had prepared an abundance of tableware and food, including items with the "We Come Little Golden Egg" logo. Susie felt like the happiest girl in the world, especially when she looked at her goal plan book; she believed everything was achievable. She also had a birthday present ready for the little golden egg.

Later in the day, Paul made a video call, and Susie eagerly shared with him the recent developments. She also called her parents to express her love, as it was her baby shower day.

She felt overwhelmed with joy, believing that all good things were happening at once.

Grandpa Ken and Grandma Rita arrived, and Hunter helped prepare refreshments for everyone. The baby shower commenced at 4:00 p.m., attended by several good friends from the town, all of whom were old neighbors who frequently visited the store. The living room was filled with gifts, and Susie lovingly touched her stomach, expressing her gratitude for the blessings in her life.

Susie addressed the gathering, expressing her gratitude and acknowledging that their small, intimate party adhered to epidemic requirements. She thanked everyone for their support and mentioned that she had called her husband, Paul, and her parents, who had recorded messages for the guests. She showcased the messages on a projector borrowed from Grandpa Ken and expressed her deep appreciation for everyone's assistance.

Susie also introduced Eggshell Lawyer to the guests, highlighting the five-step problem-solving process they had learned together. She spoke about her commitment to serving the community and Ken's small shop. The heartfelt speech earned her a round of applause.

Afterward, Hunter suggested playing games together. He played music and humorously instructed everyone not to move their bodies. The comical moment brought laughter, and soon, they danced to the music, letting go of their worries and embracing the joy of the moment.

Following the dance, they enjoyed a delicious meal, with Grandma Lucy preparing various dishes, including grilled sausage, salad, potato omelet, and Pavlova. Eggshell Lawyer also brought curry beef rice. They had sparkling wine, milk, and coffee to accompany the feast. Susie was filled with happiness, and even the little golden egg in her stomach seemed to be rejoicing.

The day felt perfect to Susie, and as it neared 8 p.m., the guests suggested she rest. They bid their farewells, leaving Susie feeling content. She practiced yoga and meditation before hugging and kissing Hunter, marking a perfect day.
