

SUSIE'S FAMILY STORY

by June.w

Christmas Eve of 2020.

A book was born to be,

Inspired by the warmth of Christmas cheer,

Susie's family came to me.

I hope this story spreads joy and light,

To children far and near,

Bringing love and warmth to every heart,

A gift throughout the year.

SEASON 1 EPISODE 15: GOING HOME WITH THE LITTLE GOLDEN EGG

On January 27, 2021, the day had finally come for Susie and the little golden egg to go home. They had spent a few days in the hospital, undergoing various examinations to ensure both were healthy and ready for this new chapter.

Despite being in the hospital, Susie had found a way to connect with her loved ones through remote video calls. Her parents, Paul's parents, Paul himself, and the little golden egg had all joined in. They made use of borrowed networks, even from the nursing homes. It was a heartwarming sight to see these older adults adapt to technology with a sense of humor.

Paul's reaction upon seeing the little golden egg was particularly touching. He couldn't hold back his tears of joy, a rare sight for Susie to witness. It was a moment filled with love and emotion.

Grandpa Ken arrived at the hospital right on time to pick up the baby. He had been diligently preparing for this day, ensuring the safety and comfort of the little golden egg. Ken had purchased a safety seat and consulted with the hospital staff to install it correctly. Susie couldn't be more grateful for Grandpa Ken's support and dedication.

Ken assisted Susie in taking the baby upstairs to their home. Hunter and Grandma Lucy were eagerly waiting for their return. The lights in the house were still on, and it was only ten o'clock in the morning, promising a beautiful day ahead. Amidst the joy of being home with her newborn, Susie remembered something important. She wanted to call Lawyer Eggshell and share the news. Eggshell Lawyer answered the call with enthusiasm, congratulating Susie and expressing pride in her achievements. She inquired about Susie's plans for the new class and offered to be her sparring partner in practicing the five-step problem-solving process.

Susie, feeling excited and motivated, agreed to meet Eggshell Lawyer next Saturday, January 30th. They would continue their journey together, tackling new challenges and sharpening their problem-solving skills. With the support of her mentor and the love of her family, Susie was ready to embrace the future with confidence.

The postscript included a message from Susie, expressing her desire to share happiness and inspire others to create their own family stories. The matrix kids promised to continue sharing their adventures and stories with everyone, encouraging them to find their unique versions in different forms.

With love and gratitude, the matrix kids signed off, marking the end of this heartwarming season of Susie's journey.
